

Tales from the deep

from the Fishing Editor

Ten members of the Nimbin heads Fishing team, Harry, Baza, Pix, Gerard, Mark W, Mark, Andrew, Matt W, Gunta and Peter, went out to sea about 26 kilometres off Wooli.

A couple of the guys hadn't been to sea for a full day before so at 5.30 am sea sick tablets were going around, but the seas were kind on the day with a 1 metre swell and only a 10 knot wind. Everyone caught good fish with the catch being 78 snapper, 23 travelly and 4 kingfish - not bad for 8 hours at sea.

The best fish of the day was from Harry, Pix and Baz, with a 4 kg kingfish each, and Andrew (pictured) with a 4 kg snapper, which was the catch of the day.

After sleeping in and missing our last big trip, Bazza had a mixed day with turning up at 2.30 am and going fishing in his pyjamas all day, catching a few fish and burlyng with his mobile phone. So if you want to ring Baz you might get King Neptune.

The next day all the fish were divvied up and snapper were shared around the village.

It's nearly Showtime!
