CLIMATE CHAOS

White Christmas comes early

What wild, weird, whacky wintry weather!
There probably used to be severe hailstorms here in November all the time, during the ice age, but no-one around here can remember it ever happening before.
Blistering hot days, each followed by a violent afternoon storm, some with hail, and culminating in a massive hailstorm on Monday 18th November that shredded foliage, flooded buildings and knocked the power grid out.
However, the storms also created some lovely picture-postcard views. Every cloud...
