6 pm Saturday 6 May, Nimbin Town Hall
Facilitator: Rebecca Houghton
Speakers: Dr Karen Hitchcock, Micha Lerner, Dr Martin Williams, Dr Will Tregoning, Prof Bennett-Levy
About: Recently, in a surprise move that made headlines around the globe, the Therapeutic Goods Administration, Australia's national regulator of drugs, poisons and pharmaceuticals made the decision to re-schedule MDMA and Psilocybin to schedule 8, under very specific and strict conditions. This panel brings together researchers, psychologists, doctors, legal experts and advocates to discuss this decision. What it means for the future of health care? Who meets the access criteria? What will this cost? What therapeutic training will be required for practitioners? What are the cultural and societal costs of prohibition
